

GETTING AROUND SYDNEY

You can find most of the information you need on public transport in Sydney from the following:

Transport NSW Ph: 131 500

Transport NSW Web: <https://transportnsw.info/>

Sydney has a wide variety of transport options including trains, buses and ferries. Get free printed timetables from train stations, bus depots and ferry terminals. To plan your trip, use the following website:

Trip Planning: <https://transportnsw.info/trip#/>

You can buy tickets for most train, bus and ferry services at the railway station or ferry station. It is cheaper to pre-purchase a weekly or monthly ticket if you use public transport every day. For more information use the following website:

Ticket and Fare Information:

<https://transportnsw.info/tickets-opal>

Opal is Sydney's smartcard ticketing system used to pay for travel on public transport in Sydney, the Blue Mountains, Central Coast, the Hunter and the Illawarra. Add value before you travel and tap on and off to pay your fare.

For information about the Opal Card visit the following website: <https://www.opal.com.au/>

Please note: International students are not entitled to concession fares, so you must pay the full adult fare. The pre-paid ticket is a way of saving money.

The following webpage will be useful for planning your trip to minimise the impact of disruptions.

Travel alerts and trackwork: <https://transportnsw.info/alerts#/train>

Other Useful Links:

CityRail www.cityrail.nsw.gov.au ...train timetables, fares and network maps

Sydney Buses www.sydneybuses.info ...bus timetables, fares and network maps

Sydney Ferries www.sydneyferries.info ...ferry timetables, fares and network maps

Taxis are also easy to find, although they cost more than trains, buses or ferries.