Course Outline

The Bachelor of Tourism and Hospitality Management (BTHM) offer an effective starting point for a career in tourism and hospitality. The program is designed with an emphasis on case-based learning that builds progressively through the three year degree. A feature of this BTHM program is the arrangement of practitioners as visiting lecturers who will share their knowledge and experience, and field trips to enable you to gain first-hand experience of the contemporary context of the tourism and hospitality sectors. These real-life case studies will support your learning and ensure you have a wide choice of work options and an increased potential for long-term career development and leadership roles in this dynamic growth industry.

To give you an added advantage in your career, the BTHM program has been developed with close industry consultation. Subjects such as Strategic Management in Tourism and Hospitality, Cost and Performance Management and Global Tourism and Hospitality Futures will develop your strategic insight and international perspective, while Digital Marketing and Innovation and Entrepreneurship in Tourism and Hospitality equip you with skills and knowledge to engage in the changing virtual landscape and apply your learning to the challenges of the global business world. Practice-based subjects such as Work Integrated Learning and Work Integrated Project provide a practical orientation towards your study and prepare you for your chosen career.
